Copy of office memorandum No.F.77/2/47-Public(B), dated 13th August, 1947 from the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Home Department (INDIA) to all Ministries of the Government of India, etc.

Sub:- Government Servants - Oath of allegiance to the Indian Dominion.

The Government of India have decided that all Government servants should take an oath of allegiance to the New State (Indian Dominion). The form of the oath is as follows:-

"I _____ do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established and that I will loyally carry out the duties of my office. So help me God".

This oath-taking will apply to all full time Government servants who are subject to the Government Servants Conduct Rules or other relevant rules.

2. As regards the procedure for taking the oath, it has been decided that on the opening of the office, on the 19th August or the first working day after the 14th August, 1947, the highest officer present should take the oath in the presence of a Gazetted Officer (or Heads of Branches) under him and thereafter the Gazetted Officer (or Heads of Branches) should take the oath. The Gazetted Officer (or Heads of Branches) will, then proceed to the respective Sections (or Branches) and have the oath taken by all subordinates who are present on that date. A list will be prepared of Government Servants who are on leave or absent otherwise at the time of taking of the oath and these Government Servants will be required to take the oath before joining duty on or after the 19th August or the first working day after the 14th August, 1947.

3. The Home Department will be grateful if Finance/etc. Department take necessary action for the administration of the oath as indicated above to all Government Servants in their Department and their attached and Subordinate Offices all over India. All the offices outside the Headquarters of the Government of India may, if necessary, be informed telegraphically.

(The Defence Department are requested to adminster the oath to all Government Servants under their control both at the Headquarters and at the attached and subordinate offices all over India except those governed by the Army Act.
